

Navigating Unemployment Compensation: A Workshop for Adjunct Faculty in Ohio

- As an adjunct, am I eligible for unemployment in the summers and between fall and spring semesters?
- How do I file?
- What documents do I need to support my application?
- What do I do if I am denied?
- What does “reasonable assurance” mean?
- Stories from fellow adjuncts

WHEN: Saturday, November 22, 2014 @ 11 AM

WHERE: Akron-Summit County Public Library, Room 2AB
60 S. High Street, Akron, OH 44362

RSVP: <http://goo.gl/forms/jjz1e0HE4B>

This workshop will help faculty in Ohio learn about adjunct faculty eligibility for unemployment compensation. Even if this does not apply to you now, please attend to become informed and to meet other faculty members working to improve the working conditions of adjunct faculty in the area and across the state!

Light Refreshments follow

This workshop is for informational purposes only. It is not intended to provide legal advice.

Sponsored By: AFT Higher Education/New Faculty Majority/Ohio Part-Time Faculty Association